Shri S.K. Pattanayak, IAS, Secretary (Agriculture), Government of India lighting the inaugural lamp of the National Conference

Shri S.K. Pattanayak IAS, Secretary (Agriculture), Government of India in his inaugural address highlighted that the Cooperative Sector has been playing a distinct and significant role in the Country's process of socio-economic development, covering all Villages and penetrated every sphere of the economy. Even though the Cooperative Movement has shown visible impact in various economic activities, yet the journey of the movement has not been smooth throughout. Considering the volume of Cooperative Societies and its membership, the movement should have contributed substantially in the life styles of its members especially for mass artisans, weavers, fishermen and the weaker section. Cooperatives need to emphasis on excellent quality management, technologies upgradation, cost minimisation measures, professionalisation with strong financing resources for their viability and sustainability.

Prof. M.S. Sriram, IIM, Bangalore in his Key Note Address stated that the capacity building and training need of the cooperative sector differs in the range scope and changing context. He emphasized that the need for capacity building varies at the different levels, the cooperative training institutions should design the curriculum accordingly.

Prof. M.S. Sriram, IIM, Bangalore delivering the Key Note Address during National Conference.

Dr. Chandra Pal Singh Yadav, Hon'ble Member of Parliament (Rajya Sabha), President, NCUI & Chairman, NCCT addressing the gathering in the National Conference

Dr. Chandra Pal Singh Yadav, Hon'ble Member of Parliament (Rajya Sabha), President, NCUI & Chairman, NCCT in his presidential address highlighted that the cooperative sector has played a significant role in India's socio-economic development, covering villages and various sectors of the economy but the cooperative sector being the state subject has been neglected. Cooperatives are the only means to serve farmers effectively. He also stressed the need for giving due recognition to the Cooperative Diploma offered by the NCCT in recruitment and promotion, as done in the states of Kerala and Tamil Nadu. He also floated the idea of having a corpus fund of Rs 500 crores for strengthening the cooperative education and training and sought the support of the govt. in this regard

The inaugural function was followed with Technical Sessions in which deliberations were made by the resource persons of National Repute.

Shri M.I. Ganagi, CGM, NABARD, Bangalore addressing the participants during the Technical Session of the National Conference

Major Recommendations of the National Conference

- Collaborative measures should be taken up by Cooperative Training Institutions for sharing of resources, such as infrastructure, faculty expertise, training material, library etc. among them.
- Cooperative Training Institutions shall be involved actively in the implementation of flagship schemes and Skill Development and Entrepreneurship Development Programmes of Govt. of India
- Govt. should make budgetary provisions to support strengthening of Cooperative Education and Training.
- The subject of cooperation should be included in the curriculum of School and College level to create awareness amongst the students about Cooperative movement.
