

Achievements of NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR COOPERATIVE TRAINING during 2016-17

NCCT is the nodal organisation in the country engaged in the training of cooperative stakeholders. The Council, through its network comprising of a national institute at Pune called Vaikunth Mehta Institute of Cooperative Management (VAMNICOM), five Regional Institutes of Cooperative Management (RICMs), and 14 Institutes of Cooperative Management (ICMs), imparts training to the people associated with cooperative organisations as well as other organisations linked with the cooperative sector. All the RICMs and ICMs are accredited with C-PEC, BIRD, Lucknow.

During the year 2016-17, NCCT significantly exceeded its training targets both in terms of the number of programmes organised as well as the number of participants who attended these programmes. Against the target of 1600 programmes, NCCT conducted 2012 programmes. In respect of participants, NCCT trained 63,147 participants against the target of 40,000 participants, recording an increase of almost sixty percent.

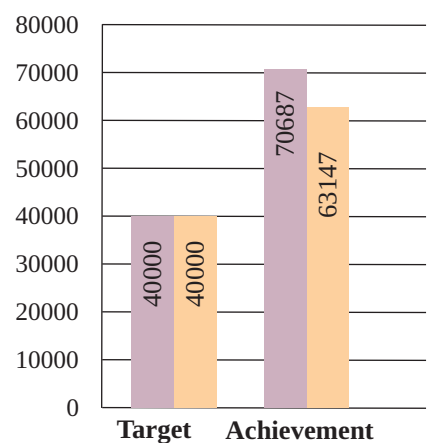

Apart from the regularly organised training programmes, the training units of NCCT also conducts professional courses like PGDM (Agri-Business), MBA, PGDCA, BBA, and Diploma in Rural Management, to equip the participants with the necessary knowledge, skills and aptitude required to manage cooperative and even corporate enterprises. During the year 2016-17, these programmes continued to expand their scope and reach and achieved higher professional excellence.
