

NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR COOPERATIVE TRAINING

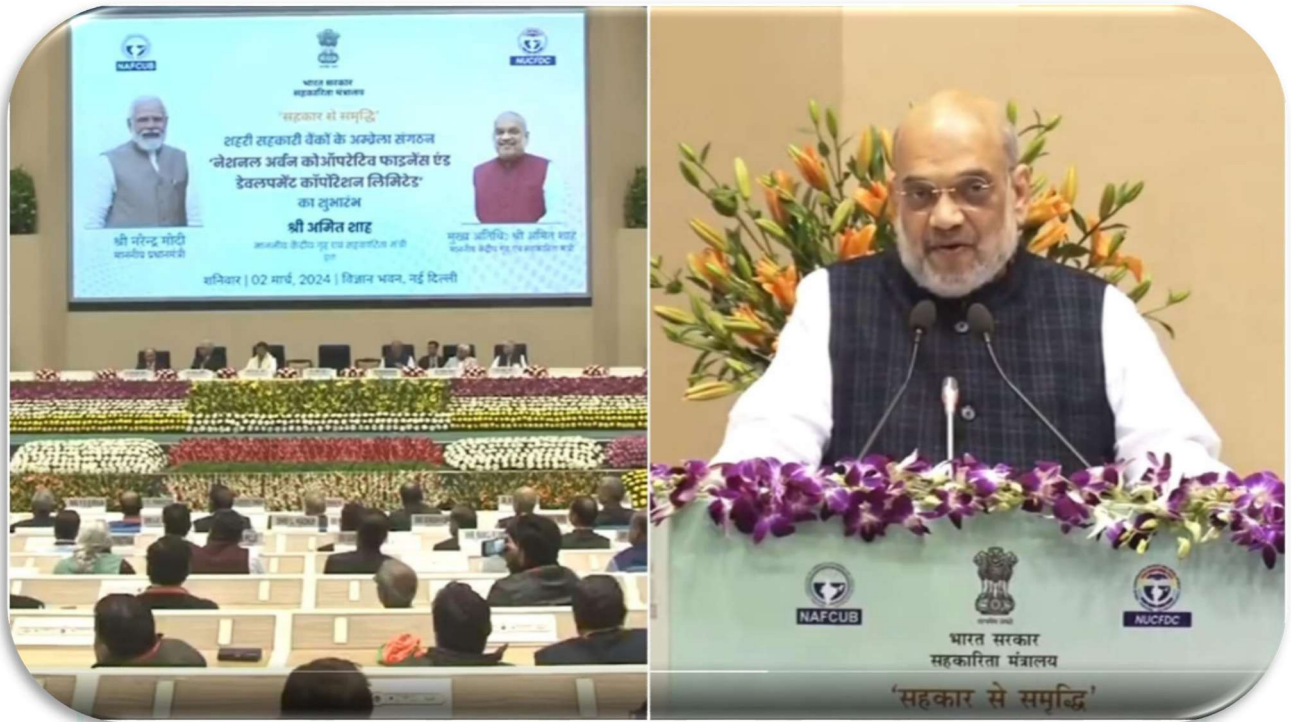

National Council for Cooperative Training (NCCT) is an autonomous society duly registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860. Its operations are primarily sponsored and overseen by the Ministry of Cooperation, Government of India. The fundamental mission of the Council is to facilitate, coordinate, organize, supervise, and evaluate various initiatives related to cooperative training for individuals employed in the cooperative sector of the nation and other stakeholders in the sector. Governing Council, with Hon'ble Union Minister for Cooperation as its President, is the highest body of NCCT.

NCCT has established a robust training infrastructure that includes the renowned VAMNICOM in Pune, serving as its national level apex institution. Additionally, the Council has founded five Regional Institutes of Cooperative Management (RICMs) located strategically in Chandigarh, Bangalore, Kalyani, Gandhinagar, and Patna. Furthermore, there are 14 Institutes of Cooperative Management (ICMs) situated in key locations across the nation, including Bhopal, Bhubaneswar, Chennai, Dehradun, Guwahati, Hyderabad, Imphal, Jaipur, Kannur, Lucknow, Madurai, Nagpur, Pune, and Thiruvananthapuram. These institutions play a significant role in advancing cooperative education and development in India. All the institutes of NCCT are accredited with Centre for Professional Excellence in Cooperatives (C-PEC), BIRD, Lucknow.
